1. The Wild Rover

Traditional

C major · Ukulele · 120 bpm

Verse 1

```
     C                    F          C
I've been a wild rover for many's the year,
         C            G7                   C
And I've spent all me money on whiskey and beer,
    C         F            C             F
But now I'm returning with gold in great store,
      C          G7                    C
And I never will play the wild rover no more.
```

Chorus

```
         G7              C
And it's no, nay, never, (clap, clap, clap, clap)
                   F
No, nay, never, no more,
       C             F
Will I play the wild rover,
   G7        C
No never, no more.
```

Verse 2

```
  C                    F          C
I went to an alehouse I used to frequent,
      C            G7                C
And I told the landlady me money was spent.
  C             F           C            F
I asked her for credit, she answered me "Nay,
```

```
       C         G7                      C
Such a custom as yours I could have any day."
```

Chorus

```
         G7              C
And it's no, nay, never, (clap, clap, clap, clap)
                   F
No, nay, never, no more,
       C             F
Will I play the wild rover,
   G7        C
No never, no more.
```

Verse 3

```
  C                      F          C
I took from me pocket ten sovereigns bright,
        C          G7                      C
And the landlady's eyes opened wide with delight.
          C      F            C            F
She said "I have whiskeys and wines of the best,
        C            G7                    C
And the words that I told you were only in jest."
```

Chorus

```
         G7              C
And it's no, nay, never, (clap, clap, clap, clap)
                   F
No, nay, never, no more,
       C             F
Will I play the wild rover,
   G7        C
No never, no more.
```

Verse 4

```
        C                      F              C
I'll go home to my parents, confess what I've done,
         C           G7                    C
And I'll ask them to pardon their prodigal son.
    C              F            C           F
And when they've caressed me as oft-times before,
  C          G7                    C
I never will play the wild rover no more.
```

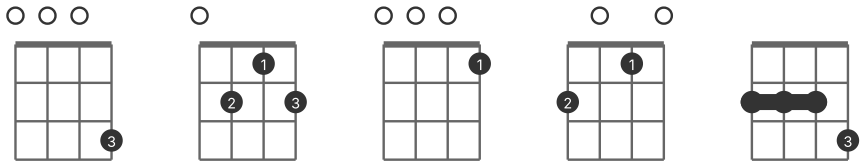

Chorus

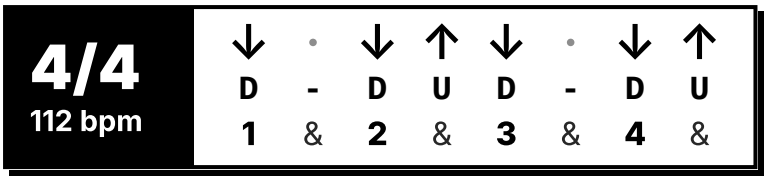

```
         G7              C
And it's no, nay, never, (clap, clap, clap, clap)
                   F
No, nay, never, no more,
       C             F
Will I play the wild rover,
   G7        C
No never, no more.
```

2. It's a Long Way to Tipperary

Jack Judge and Harry Williams, 1912

C major · Ukulele · 112 bpm

Verse 1

```
C                            G7           C
Up to mighty London came an Irishman one day,
                                          G7           C
As the streets are paved with gold, sure everyone was gay,
                  C7          F                     C
Singing songs of Piccadilly, Strand and Leicester Square,
     D7                           G7
Till Paddy got excited, then he shouted to them there:
```

Chorus

```
       C                              C7          F
It's a long way to Tipperary, it's a long way to go.
       C                              D7              G7
It's a long way to Tipperary, to the sweetest girl I know!
C                        C7              F
Goodbye, Piccadilly, farewell, Leicester Square!
       C                        F            C       G7    C
It's a long, long way to Tipperary, but my heart's right there.
```

Verse 2

```
C                            G7          C
Paddy wrote a letter to his Irish Molly-O,
                                       G7               C
Saying, "Should you not receive it, write and let me know!
             C7                  F                    C
If I make mistakes in spelling, Molly, dear," said he,
```

```
   D7                                      G7
"Remember, it's the pen that's bad, don't lay the blame on me!"
```

Chorus

```
       C                             C7          F
It's a long way to Tipperary, it's a long way to go.
       C                             D7              G7
It's a long way to Tipperary, to the sweetest girl I know!
C                        C7              F
Goodbye, Piccadilly, farewell, Leicester Square!
       C                       F            C       G7    C
It's a long, long way to Tipperary, but my heart's right there.
```

Verse 3

```
C                            G7          C
Molly wrote a neat reply to Irish Paddy-O,
                                G7            C
Saying, "Mike Maloney wants to marry me, and so
                      C7          F               C
Leave the Strand and Piccadilly, or you'll be to blame,
    D7                                G7
For love has fairly drove me silly: hoping you're the same!"
```

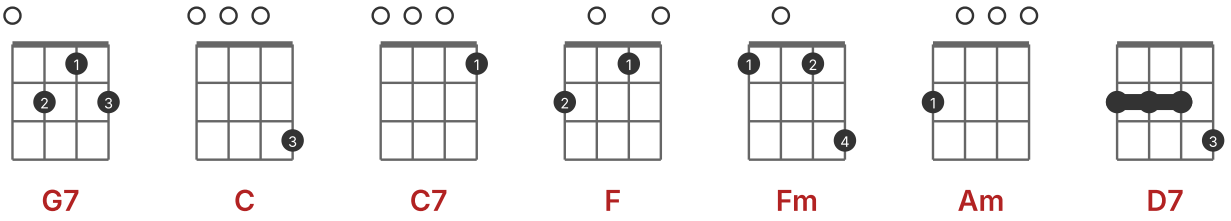

Chorus

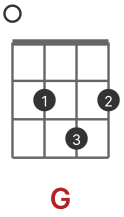

```
       C                             C7          F
It's a long way to Tipperary, it's a long way to go.
       C                             D7              G7
It's a long way to Tipperary, to the sweetest girl I know!
C                        C7              F
Goodbye, Piccadilly, farewell, Leicester Square!
       C                       F            C       G7    C
It's a long, long way to Tipperary, but my heart's right there.

3. Danny Boy

Frederic Weatherly, 1913

C major · Ukulele · 66 bpm

Verse 1

```
   G7    C                   C7        F
Oh Danny boy, the pipes, the pipes are calling
     Fm      C          Am       D7       G7
From glen to glen, and down the mountain side.
    G7       C          C7            F
The summer's gone, and all the roses falling,
     C         Am       G7     F      C
It's you, it's you must go and I must bide.
    G       F          C               F
But come ye back when summer's in the meadow,
   G        C        Am         D7         G
Or when the valley's hushed and white with snow,
     C       C7      F              Fm
It's I'll be here in sunshine or in shadow,
   C     Am      F     G7              C
Oh Danny boy, oh Danny boy, I love you so!
```

Verse 2

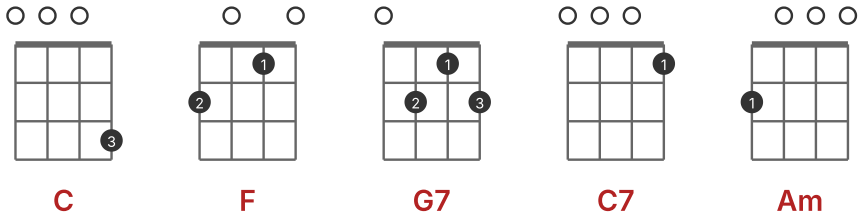

```
    G7      C          C7                   F
But when ye come, and all the flowers are dying,
   Fm   C        Am     D7       G7
If I am dead, as dead I well may be,
```

```
      G7       C        C7               F
Ye'll come and find the place where I am lying,
    C         Am     G7  F         C
And kneel and say an Ave there for me.
    G       F            C               F
And I shall hear, though soft you tread above me,
    G      C          Am      D7      G
And all my grave will warmer, sweeter be,
    C        C7       F                Fm
For you will bend and tell me that you love me,
    C       Am       F               G7      C
And I shall sleep in peace until you come to me!
```

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me.
  C         C7        F       C           Am         G7     C×2
I once was lost but now am found, was blind but now I see.
```

Verse 2

```
      C×2                    F         C×3                          G7×2
'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved.
    C         C7        F        C         Am      G7       C×2
How precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed.

'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

Verse 4

```
    C×2               F       C×3                   G7×2
The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures;
   C       C7         F       C     Am      G7     C×2
He will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun,
      C       C7      F          C           Am        G7      C×2
We've no less days to sing God's praise than when we'd first begun.

```
Am×2              G            Am
Are you going to Scarborough Fair?
C         Am         D         Am×2
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme.
  Am            C×2            G×2
Remember me to one who lives there,
    Am       G×2                 Am×2
For once she was a true love of mine.
```

Verse 2

```
Am×2                  G       Am
Tell her to make me a cambric shirt,
C        Am        D        Am×2
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme,
    Am      C×2     G×2
Without any seam or needlework,
    Am          G×2               Am×2
And then she'll be a true love of mine.
```

Verse 3

```
Am×2                   G          Am
Tell her to wash it in yonder dry well,
C        Am        D        Am×2
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme,
      Am           C×2       G×2
Where never sprung water nor rain ever fell,
    Am          G×2               Am×2
And then she'll be a true love of mine.
```

Verse 4

```
Am×2                  G      Am
Tell her to dry it on yonder thorn,
C        Am        D        Am×2
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme,
      Am         C×2           G×2
Which never bore blossom since Adam was born,
    Am          G×2               Am×2
And then she'll be a true love of mine.
```

Verse 5

```
Am×2                  G       Am
Ask her to find me an acre of land,
C        Am        D        Am×2
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme,
  Am             C×2           G×2
Between the salt water and the sea strand,
    Am          G×2               Am×2
And then she'll be a true love of mine.
```

Verse 6

```
Am×2              G            Am
Are you going to Scarborough Fair?
C         Am         D         Am×2
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme.
  Am            C×2            G×2
Remember me to one who lives there,
    Am        G×2                 Am×2
For once she was a true love of mine.
